

Disability Employment Awareness Month

Read a fiction book starring a character with a disability

Watch a movie or show featuring people with disabilities

Research a local organization that helps people with disabilities

Create your space to be adaptable for a person with a disability

Your pick!

Read a non-fiction book about the history of people with disabilities

Support a local business owned by a person with a disability

Learn why we acknowledge Disability Employment Awareness Month

Discover a new artist or musician with a disability

Disability Employment Awareness Month

- Check out our resource lists made for you by your librarians! See these as a jumping off point with suggested titles.
- Keep track of each activity you complete or participate in using this resource tracker!
- Be sure to continue checking the website for more information about speakers and future meetings.
- Are we missing something? If there is a title that you think is missing from this list, be sure to contact us. We're all learning and welcome any kind of constructive feedback.

